This Chapel has been spoken of, and justly so, as the most beautiful and complete in America.

This is merely an example of the many thoughtful ideas originated for your convenience in your hour of sorrow.

At that time, when the mind is in a chaos, so to speak, it is comforting to know that the many details in connection with a funeral are being looked after just as you would have them attended to.

This Chapel is free, as are the services of an organist, and the charges made for my services are quite nominal; as a matter of fact, your desire governs the price—to a very great degree.

What Makes You Mad

is to have to pay your state and city license as well as your personal property tax on your auto, and find another sneaking through with a sign on his car, "License applied for," no city license tag and paying no personal taxes. There are hundreds doing this in Chicago and thousands who are evading city licenses and taxes of all kinds because they have a "pull" with the administration or authorities, and no collector bothers them, while they haunt the other fellow until he has to pay to the last penny. Nearly every line of business is supposed to pay a license nowadays, but few do it, as the collectors are started out just about election time and if they "vote right" they are not bothered again until the next election. The city is losing a million dollars a year in uncollected licenses and small taxes, which it is the duty of the city to collect, yet the entire corps of collectors were let out a week ago because they did not stand in with the authorities.

Strike of Public Employes Dangerous

Chicago was treated to a strike of electric workers connected with the city's lighting plant this week, that left the city in darkness nearly all of Tuesday night. Permitting a strike of public employes, be they city, county, state or national, is a very dangerous precedent and may lead to most harmful results. Police Superintendent Charles Fitzmorris took the bull by the horns and threatened "Bosco" Knott, the business agent of the electricians, with indictment as accessory to every crime committed while the city was in darkness unless he ordered the men back, and the order was given. France does better in such cases. Every employe of the government is enlisted and a strike would be mutiny or rebellion and punishable as such. Something should be done that the important departments of a city may not drop their work at any time and jeapordize the entire community. Imagine the situation of the police or fire departments quiting at any time? If these cases can not be handled under the general acts of conspiracy, some stringent measure should be adopted, and at once, not waiting until a critical moment arrives.

Autoists have been compelled to show their identifications cards for the first time this week. Better have yours handy.

You will enjoy your Sunday dinner and it will be perfectly satisfactory if taken at Quinn's $60,000 Cafeteria, 6319 S. Halsted st.—adv.

Mrs. Charles E. Shearman, 6359 Stewart ave., is spending July in the hills of Pennsylvania. She reports weather fine, "about 106° in shade."

Joseph Mulvihill of 5742 Emerald ave., after successfully completing the high school course of the LaSalle Institute, left for Grafton, Neb., where he will spend the summer with his cousin, Rev. P. J. Healy.

Thursday night's shower was another convincing argument for building a larger sewer in Englewood, on 63rd st. east especially. Every basement was flooded and some nearly filled.

The Wisdom and Grondal families of 6623 Perry ave. have sold their duplex building and will locate in Orange, N. J. Mr. B. Grondal has been transferred by the W. K. Fairbanks Co. to the New York office.

Mrs. John Reynolds has sold her beautiful home at 6429 Yale ave. and will move to her childhood home at Crystal Lake, Ill. Her many friends will be sorry to have her leave Englewood, but glad that she is near enough to be a frequent visitor.

You are entitled to a vacation from the worries of a laundress and unsatisfactory laundry service. Your entire family washing may be finished complete at a reasonable cost. If in doubt just call the Brewster Laundry and ask for an estimator. Phones Wentworth 273 and 3791.—adv.

Mrs. A. J. Slocum of 663 64th st., and among our oldest residents, will leave this week for a short visit with friends and then go to her daughter's at St. Joseph, Mo., to make her home hereafter. Mrs. Slocum is a most estimable old lady and we are sorry to have her leave us.

Fred Miller, the expert mailing room foreman of the Englewood post office, while sporting with the mermaids at Rainbo Beach Friday night, lost his teeth and has been eating spoon food ever since. What the boys want to know is, what he was doing with his mouth so wide open in the presence of ladies.

Miss Josephine Prendergast of 5925 LaSalle st. and Miss Marie Meehan, same address, left Chicago Saturday to spend their vacation at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Thos. Norris, Oxford, Iowa. Josephine Prendergast is a daughter of Sergt. Prendergast and won several prizes in the membership drive for the Robert Emmet council. Miss Meehan is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Meehan and recently graduated from the Metropolitan Business College in Englewood.

AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

Englewood W. C. T. U.

The Englewood W. C. T. U. will meet in a room in the First M. E. church, Stewart Ave. and 64th St., next Thursday, July 21st, at 2 o'clock. Miss Anna Hunter has a good program promised. Church captains and others will please report new members at the meeting. Every member of the union ought to secure at least one more new member. We lack more than one hundred names to double our membership.

Idea of Canal Is Old.

The project of a canal across the isthmus of Panama is about four hundred years old. Balboa and other Spanish explorers urged such construction before the emperor of Spain, and made surveys in search of a feasible line as early as 1525.

Pioneer Resident Dies

Dr. Ingersoll, whose death occurred on July 1st, was born in Kalamazoo, Mich., his father being a pioneer of that section. In 1884 he, together with other members of his family, moved to Englewood. He was subsequently married to Clara Appenfield of Princeton, Ind. Their married life was wonderful companionship until December 17th, 1919, when Mrs. Ingersoll was stricken.

Dr. Ingersoll studied medicine at Hahnemann college and began the practice of medicine in Englewood. Throughout the many years of his professional career, he became widely known and loved for his unselfish devotion and care of people in every walk of life.

Dr. and Mrs. Ingersoll were lifelong members of the Baptist church and active in many branches of church work. After the long years of close companionship, Dr. Ingersoll seemed unable to go on alone after his wife's death.

About six weeks ago he was taken ill, although he continued to be up and around much of the time, partially attending his practice. It was finally decided that an operation was necessary and in undergoing this operation the doctor failed to recover.

Dr. Ingersoll leaves two sisters, Mrs. Milton T. Zimmerman of Denver, formerly of Chicago, and Mrs. George P. Wilkins of Buffalo, and three nephews, Raymond L. Zimmerman, George R. Wilkins and Walter M. Wilkins, all of whom were in Chicago for the funeral.

New Members at Seventh Presbyterian Church

Seventeen new members were received into the Seventh Presbyterian church, 86th pl. and Sangamon st., in the month of June. This church is growing rapidly under the able leadership of the minister, Rev. Thomas Fulton Campbell, who has received more than half of the present membership into the church. He is not taking any vacation this summer and expects to remain here and preach in his own pulpit every Sunday. This friendly church extends a hearty welcome to all visitors and strangers to its services.

Boy Scout Camp in Progress

On July Fourth the Boy Scout camps for the Scouts of Chicago opened at Owasippe, near Whitehall, Mich., on Crystal Lake. Mr. O. F. Reich, chairman of the Southwest district, went over for the opening of the camps, having, of course, a particular interest in the camp of the Southwest district both because he is chairman of the district and because he has a son at that camp. His letter to the Chicago Council on what he found at camp is full of gratifying information for the Scouts and their parents in this district for he feels that our district has been particularly fortunate in its location and personnel.

There are still some openings at camp for Scouts who want to go for the third or fourth period, and registration is still going on at district headquarters. Sixty Scouts from our district are in camp for the first period which is now in progress, and seventy-eight have signed up for the second period which begins on the 18th. The third period begins the 1st of August and the fourth the 15th.

Rob M. Rappaport

Thursday last burglars effected an entrance into the fur store of Morris Rappaport at 6510 Halsted st., and carried off $10,000 worth of furs. They got in by "jimmying" open a rear door, and dynamited the immense vault in which most of the furs were stored. Fortunately Mr. Rappaport is insured against loss, as this is his second loss within the year. He immediately stocked up again and is ready for business as usual.

A Pretty Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Ploutz of 402 61st st. announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Edwin B. Brown on Tuesday, July 12th. A few of Miss Ploutz's friends gave a surprise shower at her home on Saturday, July 9th, at which she received many beautiful and useful presents. Two dolls dressed as bride and groom and pink and white decorations ornamented the home.

Murderer Held Accountable.

The commandment "Thou shalt not kill" has an application not generally recognized. It is this, that moral responsibility forbids one to kill time.—Boston Transcript.

That History of Englewood

Every member solicited to act on the committee to compile a "History of Englewood" has written his acceptance, and the chairman has received a number of very valuable articles relating to the early days which will be most valuable to the compilers. It is not the intention to make this volume a cut and dried statistical affair, and probably "The Story of Englewood" would be a better title if the chairman's views are taken on the subject. The chairman, Mr. Sullivan, or any member of the committee will be pleased to receive any communications concerning our town in the early days, its character and its characters, with a smattering of anecdotes to help make it an enjoyable book to read, and we rely upon our older people and their descendants to help us gather the material.

Orang-Outang Misnomer.

Orang-utan, says a correspondent, from southeastern Borneo, means in the Malay language "man of the forest," while orang-utang, the name which we carelessly apply to the great anthropoid, means "man in debt."

News from Ogden Park

Tennis

Miss Irene Wall from Ogden Park won the women's singles in the tennis tournament held at Harrison Park.

Tennis clubs from every part of the city were represented in the tournament held at Ogden Park on July 2nd, 3rd and 4th. The men's singles was won by Mr. N. Wasserman of Ogden. Second place was taken by Mr. Chas. Lejeck of Sherman. Third place was won by Mr. J. Barnes. Miss Irene Wall won the first place in the women's singles. Miss Estelle Cox took second and Miss Martha Sautner of Hardin Square took third place. Two silver trophy cups, two silver medals and two bronze medals were given to the winners.

Boys and girls sixteen years of age and under will be given the opportunity of participating in a junior tennis meet conducted by the South Parks. Any boy or girl interested should get in touch with the director or instructor of the park. We are making plans for a preliminary meet to be held locally.

Horseshoes

Horseshoe tournaments for both seniors and boys will be held by the South Parks the latter part of July. The pits at Ogden Park are ready for use and all men and boys interested in this game are urged to come and get ready for the big meet. See the instructor in the men's gymnasium.

Water Carnival

The swimming pool at Ogden has been a popular place during this hot weather. Every swim has been filled to capacity, which means that there have been in the neighborhood of two thousand swimmers every day the pool has been open. A special water carnival will be held in the pool the end of July with novel races and stunts. A special feature will be exhibition high diving.

Paper Work Club

The members of the paper work club were given their first lesson last Friday afternoon. There is still room for a limited number to join. Five girls from the Lindblom high school are giving instruction in the making of paper flowers and favors. Class meets every Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Sailboats

Boys interested in sailboats, come to the big wading pool at the south end of the lagoon next Monday evening at 7 for a try-out and race. Boys with home-made motor boats are also invited.

Call "1313" When You Want Fire or Police

If your house catches fire tonight and you wake up suddenly and call "Main O" for the fireman—

Or if a burglar gets into your house and you call Main 13 for the police before he fires at you—the joke's on you. There isn't any Main O or Main 13 any more. The new number to call the police is Police 1313, and when you want a fireman in a hurry call Fire 1313, even if you are superstitious about two 13s and a fire.

The new directory of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, which will be distributed today, contains an announcement of the changes.

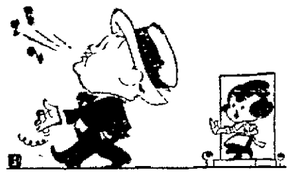
A bird like this makes a model husband



HER NICE new husband.
STEPPED OUT of the house.
WHISTLING LIKE a bird.
WHICH ALARMED young wife.
ESPECIALLY WHEN.
SHE FOUND she'd picked
THE WRONG package.
AND INSTEAD of oatmeal.
HAD GIVEN him birdseed.
BUT DON'T think from this.
THAT EVERY guy
YOU HEAR whistling.
HAS NECESSARILY.
BEEN ROBBING the canary
OTHER THINGS inspire.
THE ALMOST human male.
TO BLOW through his lips.
AND MAKE shrill noises.
A RAISE, for example.
OR A day off when.
A DOUBLE header is on.
OR AN everyday thing.
LIKE A good drag.
ON ONE of those smokes.
THAT SATISFY.
WHICH CERTAINLY are.
THE REAL birdseed.
FOR MAKING men.
TRILL THEIR pipes for joy.
SO LADIES, if hubby.
GOES AWAY whistling.
YOU NEEDN'T worry.
ALL'S SWELL.

WHEN you say that Chesterfields "satisfy," you're whistling. You know—the instant you light one—that the tobaccos in it are of prime selection, both Turkish and Domestic. And the blend—well, you never tasted such smoothness and full-flavored body! No wonder the "satisfy-blend" is kept secret. It can't be copied.

You will like the natural slate green (or red) of Flex-a-Tiles; the ease with which they are applied—for roofing new buildings, or over the old shingles, or for re-roofing old buildings; the absolute protection they give against all weather; their fire-resisting qualities, and the touch of beauty that they add to the home.

The well-known Richardson felt from our own mills is saturated and coated with Flex-a-Tile natural asphalt scientifically processed in our refineries, and then the slate chips from our own quarries are rolled into the hot asphalt.

All this at reasonable cost, with full service assured by the policy of building quality into every foot of Flex-a-Tile.

Harvard PHOTO PLAY HOUSE

Manager Coston of the Harvard has succeeded in holding the splendid patronage of his excellent house simply by giving the best shows of the season at prices very much less than they would have to pay at down town or even neighboring houses. His bookings will always be found strictly up-to-the-minute and but few people fail to realize that they can enjoy more comfort, could spend a night at the Harvard than in any other house in the district, besides saving a very considerable sum in admission prices and seeing [illegible] more expensive houses advertise as special features. Whatever is good, whatever is the latest and best in film dom, is sure to be seen at the Harvard and at very much reduced prices. Above: Patronize the Harvard, the parlor house of the district.

Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, July 15th and 16th, Mr. Coston offers Elsie Ferguson, the beautiful in her famous stage success, "Sacred and Profane Love." The story of a soul's awakening. The soul of a lonely girl subject for life. Lured by the melting music of a traitor into a mad infatuation. And then the soul of a woman glorified! Struggling out of the shadows to mend at last the broken life of the man who first won her love. Elsie Ferguson's greatest stage success—now throbbing on the screen. Also the very funny two-part Christie comedy, "The Restless Sex." Pathe News and Saturday matinee only, Eddie Polo in "Do or Die."

On Sunday and Monday, July 17th and 18th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m., the best of Englewood's favorites, Thomas Meighan, in his latest success "White and Unmarried." You see Billy Kane had given up burglaring and set out for Paris to spend an honest half-million. With his passport pedigree, "white and unmarried," containing all the facts he wanted nice folks to know. And when he brought into Gay Paree and got some Yank society bloods mixed up with a band of Apaches—come and watch Billy fix things! Also Pathe News and Sunday matinee only, "The Purple Riders."

On Tuesday, July 19th, one day only, matinee and night, another great Curwood play, "The Golden Snare." It is an absorbing story of mystery, adventure and romance of the north. It deals with the lone search of Sergeant Philip Raine of the R. N. W. M. P., for Bram Johnson, the madman of the Arctic barrens. Raine finds Johnson and also Celie, a beautiful elf of that wilderness, the mystery of whose presence there is not cleared up until Bram, his reason returned, sacrifices his own life to save her from a horrible fate at the hands of a white outcast and his band of Esquimaux followers. Also a Christie comedy, Burton Holmes' "Travelogues" and Screen Magazine.

On Wednesday and Thursday, July 21st and 22nd, matinee and night, the popular and charming Alice Brady in a wonderful impersonation play, in which she is the Polish girl in "The Land of Hope." On board ship she has danced for the entertainment of the sad, homesick immigrants bound for that strange land—America, and the same nimble toes in their quaint, red-topped Russian boots were to dance into the hearts of the thousands of American theatre-goers. "The Land of Hope" proves that America is ready to crown with success and happiness even the poor immigrant who brings something of beauty and something of genius to her shores. Also a new two-part comedy and international News.

Eat Lightly in Summer
Drink Milk

In hot weather it is unwise to eat heavy, heating foods. Light meals are more healthful. For lunch a glass or two of cool, pure milk is better and safer than a healty meal. Keep a plentiful supply of milk in the refrigerator all the time. Use it in preference to other cooling drinks, because it nourishes as well as refreshes.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

A Hard Luck Story

We knew that Uncle Jake would leave
His all to us when he departed,
And, though his drinking made us grieve,
We struggled not to be downhearted.
For booze will hurry one along
To where all mortal ties must sever,
And Uncle Jake took his so strong
We felt he couldn't last forever.

Alas, for futile human hope!
Alas, for ever-keen ambition!
We fancied that we had the dope,
But who could count on prohibition?
Did Uncle Jake give o'er the can,
Become a dry, hard boiled and zealous,
And grow to be a healthy man,
Ah, no! A far worse fate befell us.

He drinks as often as of yore;
A quart is still his daily diet.
We sometimes fancy he takes more
Than in the days when one could buy it.
The old man hits the same old pace;
His appetite is unabated;
And at two hundred bucks a case
A fortune soon is dissipated.

Whenever he goes out to buy
Cold perspiration wilts our collars,
And, quaking with despair we cry,
"There goes another thousand dollars.
We wouldn't do our uncle wrong;
We feel that his demise would grieve us;
But if he doesn't go ere long
He will not have a cent to leave us.

Casey says, "Most wimmin wud rather be flathered thon praised."

Console yourself—even you were probably considered "a beautiful baby."

Notwithstanding "a fool and his money are soon parted," most of us would like to play the "fool" while the money lasts.

I heard of one man who objected to the new lights on 63rd st., "as they would show how dirty he kept his display windows."

Speaking of vacations, there is a whole lot of people who are compelled to take them that would rather be at work.

It was at the Englewood police station when a young woman complained to Judge Stewart that her husband had bit her. "But that is nothing," said the peacemaking magistrate. "He probably took you for a peach." "But he didn't, your honor, he called me a lemon, and that's what I want damages for."

I attended a meeting where a very patriotic Irishman who showed a wonderful amount of dignity took no part in the proceedings for some time, then ponderously arose and remarked, "Gintlemin, Oi can't kape silent widout sayin' these few words—"

George Hubbard has volunteered to help out on the new history of Englewood, and in his reminiscences says that his first recollection is that he was appointed on the committee to meet Columbus when he discovered America.

You may interview a congressman or senator on any question under the sun, but when he is tackled on the "soldiers' bonus" or anything pertaining thereto, you will find their silence deafening.

"That is a nice warm coat you have," remarked one lady to another at the club yesterday. "Yes, when John found out that he had to pay $500 for it he made it warm for me," was the answer.

A small city boy spent last summer in the country on his grandma's farm, and one day astonished that kind old lady after visiting the cow pasture by asking, "Grandma, do you have to buy gum for all those cows to chew?"

When the doctor met little Billie on the street after a spell of illness, he said, "Well, Billee, I see the pills I gave you made you well again. How did you take them, in water or in cake?" and the kiddie answered, "Chee, I used them in my pop gun to shoot at the cat."

A friend of Caseys, who was constitutionally out of a job, came to his friend yesterday and told him that he was offered a job on the canal at Panama that would pay him $150 a month. "Whoy don't yez tek it thin?" asked Casey. "Yes, but it is 130 in the shade down there," said the fellow. "Aven so, shure yez don't hov to stay in the shade awl the toime," reasoned Casey.

A padre passing up and down among the wounded at a field hospital asked a wounded Jock whether he would like to dictate a letter home. The Jock assented. Thereupon the minister prepared to take down the letter, but found Jock tongue-tied and unable to begin. "Come along now," said the padre kindly. "We must make a start. What shall I say?" No reply. "Shall I begin, 'My Dear Wife'?" "Ay," said Jock, "pit that doon. That'll amuse her."

Handsome Ladies Working for 63rd Street Lights

About twenty of Englewood's handsomest and most popular young ladies are selling the contest tickets inaugurated by the Englewood Commercial and Civic Ass'n to pay the expense of installing the "City Beautiful" electric lamps on 63rd St. This is no lottery scheme, but straight, full value returns in which the purchaser of a ticket receives a big discount on anything purchased of any merchant who displays the sign, "Contest tickets redeemed here," in his window. The ladies selling the tickets receive a bonus and are helping along the good work. The purchaser pays twenty-five cents for the ticket and gets thirty cents discount.

Economist's Pageant Edition

The Economist covered itself with glory this week in issuing a special Pageant edition of twenty-four pages just filled with local advertising and appropriate reading matter pertinent to the occasion. It is a masterpiece of advertising and a credit to this enterprising concern.

How to Buy Coal

We often wondered why people are so lax in buying their coal, spending several hundred dollars for something they have not seen and only heard of by some popular name. When you spend one or two dollars you go to the store and pick out what you think is the best value for the money. Should you not find the quality you walk out. We say these are the proper tactics to use in purchasing coal, where there is such a large sum of money involved. Go to the coal yards and select the best value for the money, then if the coal does not appeal to you, go to some other yard. We ask you to inspect our coals and you will find that our Pocahontas Mine Run Coal is very coarse, free from impurities and specially prepared for domestic use.

Our soft coal is the best mined in Illinois. Our Scranton Hard Coal needs no comment, everybody knows there's none better. All our coals are re-screened, making it free from dust. We also carry Pocahontas Lump, Egg and Nut and Range, Harrisburg and Franklin County; also other grades too numerous to mention.

We ask you to come and look over our coals, whether you buy or not; will gladly give you any advice you may desire. Buying your coal in that manner will save you many dollars.

There is no argument against quality in our coal. We are equipped to serve you so satisfactorily that you will feel justified in dealing with us.

We cover the city. J. B. MEINER & SON, STEWART 70. General office, 338 W. 71st st.—adv. 5-15

Stealing Another's Fame

Mayor Thompson had the bronze tablet on the Municipal Pier, bearing the name of former Mayor Carter Harrison, taken down and replaced with one bearing his name. This pier was Harrison's pet project and he deserves all the credit for it as it was nearly completed and all under contract before "Big Bill" was elected. It is wrong to steal Harrison's credit and give it to one who had absolutely nothing to do with the work, yet of the thousands who will visit the pier during the Pageant, none will know but that it is the work of Thompson. Shame!

Little Norman Porter Killed by Auto

Norman Porter, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludie Porter of 6118 Princeton ave., was struck by an automobile, driven by Carl Olson, chauffeur for W. Robinson of 502 61st st., Monday noon, in front of 513 61st st. The little sufferer was rushed to St. Bernard's hospital, but died before the car reached it. The coroner's inquest has been postponed, but the chauffeur appears to have done all he could to avoid the sad accident. Little Norman was a winsome child, beloved as well by many friends as well as his bereaved parents who have the sympathy and kindest condolence of everyone. The funeral was held yesterday and very largely attended. Burial was at Mt. Hope.

Officer Hanahan Badly Beaten

Park Policeman Hanahan, stationed for several years on Normal Blvd., and very popular with Englewood people, was badly beaten by five outlaws last week while on duty at the 39th st. beach. After remonstrating with the party he was compelled to arrest them and while telephoning for the patrol was attacked by five and beaten over the head with the butt of his own revolver and night stick. He clung to two of them until help came and the entire party was arrested. The police judge let them go upon a $1,000 bond, but the South Park chief took the matter before the grand jury and had them indicted. The gentle amusement of beating up policemen must be stopped, even if it does interfere with someone's political influence.

Missing Woman's Jewels Still Missing

Mrs. Ruth Griffith Holman of 509 61st st., wandered into Chief Fitzmorris' office Saturday morning. Her mind is a blank from the time she disappeared, July 1st, but she has a dim recollection of stopping at a rooming house on Madison st., where she gave the landlady $1,200 worth of jewelry. The police are hunting for the landlady and the jewels. While Mrs. Holman is still weak from her wanderings, she is none the worse for her strange experience.

A. Bert Carson Missing

A. Bert Carson of 7200 Princeton ave., while waiting for a party of friends to go to Racine, Wis., on an auto trip, said he would take a short walk, and has not been seen by his family since. His family, thinking he had met his friends, made no investigation until the next day, and then the case was reported to the police. Mr. Carson's photo has been identified as that of a man seen wandering aimlessly at 75th st. and Michigan ave., but all further trace is lost. He was connected with the Western Lumberman for years and was an industrious worker and broke down with nervous prostration sixteen months ago, and his friends think he wandered off in a lapse of mental powers.

Death of Joseph Badenoch

A decade ago no man was better known in this part of the city than Joseph Badenoch, who served the 32nd ward as alderman for five terms and was prominent in every movement looking to the betterment of Englewood. He died at St. Luke's hospital Thursday last and his funeral occurred Saturday.

Mr. Badenoch came to Englewood in the early 80's, and with his brother John, afterwards chief of police of Chicago, established the firm of Badenoch Bros., one of the largest planing mills and interior finish works in the city. They prospered and amassed a fortune, which was greatly reduced by unwise credit giving during and after the World's Fair. He built one of the finest homes in Englewood at 6429 Yale Ave., and with his family of ten happy children made it one of the most popular residences in Englewood. Mr. Badenoch was born in Scotland in 1849 and retained his robust health until two weeks ago when he was taken to the hospital very ill. His first wife died ten years ago and he was married a few years ago to Mrs. Annie S. Lucas, who like himself was a devotee of golf and they met often on Jackson Park links. "Uncle Joe," as he was affectionately called, was an athlete in many ways; he was a prize-winning bicycle rider, was a wonderful pedestrian and walked with Dan O'Leary in several matches, one to Milwaukee and return in the coldness of winter. During the world's war he served as a labor commissioner and since has been engaged in industrial publications. He was a prominent member of the Englewood Baptist church, and one of the builders of that beautiful edifice. He had many friends in Englewood who with us lament his departure.

Knights of Columbus Entertain Ex-Service Men

The ex-service patients at Jackson Park hospital and the U. S. P. H. hospital No. 30 were entertained Thursday evening, June 30th, by the minstrel troupe from De LaSalle council, Knights of Columbus. Grand Knight John Zimmerman and Lecturer Nic Audree certainly put on some show as the boys were talking about it for some time after. Much credit is due the following for the arrangements for automobiles to take the Jackson Park patients to the 47th st. hospital: Thomas Clancy, P. J. Harmon, Michael Cronin, M. J. Casey, Owen Desmond, Charles Roach and the Lacey Motor Delivery also sent a car. Also we must not forget to mention Rev. Father Fagan, who gladly donated his car for the evening. The writer understands the orchestra was furnished through the efforts of Bro. John Hetreed of De LaSalle council. Walter J. Hackett and Robert E. Dooley, who have charge of the welfare activities for the K. of C. at these hospitals, wish to thank Grand Knight Zimmerman and Lecturer Audree and the members of De LaSalle council who so gladly assisted to make the show the success that it was. Cigarettes were also furnished and distributed to the patients by members of the troupe.
